Includes: T-shirt, drawstring bag, other giveaways, and an afternoon of incredible content presented by credible organizations

Supported by the Retired Professional Football Players of Chicago & sponsored by other community organizations, we invite your children 12 years & older to participate in Who Am I, a community youth event with the goal of empowering the youth of today with the tools they need to be successful tomorrow.

Join us for an afternoon filled with excitement, energy, genuine connection, care, and the tools to combat everyday life stressors including mental health, peer pressure, bullying, and social media. Accompanied by great speakers & former NFL Athletes to keep the fun going! Participants will feel inspired to be confident in who they are and how they can make an impact in this world!
